BOSTON UNIVERSITY | COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION | BOSTON, MA
Journalism major with a concentration in International Relations. Graduating May 2016.
Accepted to The Boston Globe's 2016 Summer Internship program (Metro)

USA TODAY | BREAKING NEWS INTERN (CURRENTLY) | BOSTON, MA

As the section's first remote intern and one of USA TODAY's only Boston-based reporters, I cover Boston news for a range of topics including: crime, business, and features. Several hours a week are spent with the social media team creating and promoting content for usatoday.com.

USA TODAY | MONEY/TECH INTERN (SUMMER 2015) | MCLEAN, VA

Reported on stocks, apps, social media, and the intersection of health-care and technology, receiving over 100 bylines in three months. Worked on camera with the video team for big stories to create a visual package to accompany my written work.

THE BOSTON GLOBE | METRO CORRESPONDENT (2014) | BOSTON, MA

Spent fall semester of my junior year working full time on The Boston Globe's city desk. General assignments included fires, shootings, robberies, along with the occasional human-interest piece about animals and local heroes. Received over 400 bylines – a handful of which appeared on the A1 and B1 sections of the newspaper – in six months.

INNER WEST COURIER | INTERN REPORTER (SPRING 2015) | SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

Studied abroad in Sydney and wrote feature stories for the Inner West Courier, a local subset of The Daily Telegraph (one of Sydney's highest-circulated newspapers). My favorite pieces included those about a burlesque dancer, a yo-yo street performer, and a really fancy cake.

PLUS: I was a reporter, editor, and columnist for Boston University's The Daily Free Press between 2012 and 2015. I also spent three months in 2013 field reporting in India for a non-profit called Aga Khan Planning and Building Service.

I am creative, curious, and well traveled. Can take pictures, create videos, and speak well in front of the camera. Always open to learning something new.
